DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 1 recites 'computer readable instruction...address masking driver... These claims merely recite software per se, which is not permissible under the Examination Guidelines for Computers - Related Inventions. Claims 2 – 9 are rejected because of there dependence to claim 1. The software is not stored on a computer readable medium, such as memory.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 3 recites the limitation "the backup storage device". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
5. Claims 5,8,9,11,16,17 recite the limitation "the address inquiry". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
6. Claim 8,11, recites the limitation "the addresses". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

7. Claim 12 recites the limitation "the SCSI inquiry". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

8. Claim 13 recites the limitation "the execution". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 18-20 are allowed.
